

SECTION 3 BUSINESS CONCERN CERTIFICATION

August 6, 2013

Dear San Diego Business Owner:

The San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC) invites you to self-certify as a Section 3 Business Concern.

Section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 was established to foster local economic development. It requires that recipients of certain U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) financial assistance, to the greatest extent feasible, provide job training, employment, contracting, and other economic opportunities to low- and very low-income persons and to business concerns which provide economic opportunities to low- and very low-income persons. Section 3 regulations are implemented in Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations Part 135.

Who is a Section 3 Resident?

- Resident of public housing who resides in the County of San Diego; or
- Resident of the County of San Diego who is low- or very-low income.

A business is eligible for self-certification as a Section 3 Business Concern if it meets one of the following conditions:

- a) It is 51% or more owned by Section 3 Residents; or
- b) At least 30% of its permanent full-time employees include persons that are currently Section 3 Residents; or were Section 3 eligible residents within 3 years of date of first employment with the business concern.

SDHC only certifies business concerns that are located in the County of San Diego.

Section 3 requirements do not apply to material or supply contracts that do not require labor.

Please complete the enclosed application. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Section 3 Unit at (619) 578-7513. Submit completed application to either of the following:

Section 3 Business Concern Certification Criteria:

Your business is able to self-certify as a Section 3 Business Concern with the San Diego Housing Commission, if in addition to meeting all the applicable state and local regulations, it meets the criteria to certify as a Section 3 Business Concern. Check one or more of the following:

- 51% or more of the business concern is owned by Section 3 Residents; or
- 30% or more of the business concern’s permanent full-time employees are Section 3 Residents, or were Section 3 eligible residents within 3 years of date of first employment with the business concern.

Who is a Section 3 Resident?

- Resident of public housing who resides in the County of San Diego; or
- Resident of the County of San Diego who is low- or very-low income:

2014 FAMILY INCOME LIMITS
Family Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Maximum Gross Annual Family Income	$44,200	$50,500	$56,800	$63,100	$68,150	$73,200	$78,250	$83,300

By the execution and delivery of this application to the San Diego Housing Commission, you hereby covenant and agree to provide such documentation, immediately upon demand by the San Diego Housing Commission, as the San Diego Housing Commission may reasonably request, to verify your eligibility for certification as a Section 3 Business Concern.

AFFIDAVIT

I, _____ (print name), declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the United States and the State of California, that I am the _____ (title/position) of _____ (name of business) and that the foregoing information and statements submitted are true, correct:

I hereby certify that my business qualifies as a Section 3 Business Concern because:

- 51% or more of the business concern is owned by Section 3 Residents; or
- 30% or more of the business concern’s permanent full-time employees are Section 3 Residents, or were Section 3 eligible residents within 3 years of date of first employment with the business concern.

My business certifies that the statements and information contained on this form are true and accurate, and meet the required HUD Section 3 business self-certification eligibility requirements in accordance with 24 CFR Part 135.

My business agrees to notify the San Diego Housing Commission’s Section 3 Unit of any material change in the information contained in this application within 30 days of such change. My business further agrees to provide any and all documentation reasonably requested by the San Diego Housing Commission in order to verify Section 3 eligibility.

A certified Section 3 Business Concern is not entitled to be awarded a contract simply by being listed in San Diego Housing Commission’s registry of certified Section 3 Business Concerns. Businesses that self-certify their eligibility may receive a designation as a Section 3 Business Concern, subject to later verification from local recipient agencies. Information that is misrepresented in this application or in any documentation or information provided to the San Diego Housing Commission in connection with this application shall be grounds for denial or revocation of Section 3 certification and/or immediate termination of any contract that may be awarded. Persons that misrepresent their qualifications to receive a Section 3 Business Concern designation may face debarment and/or civil and/or criminal penalties, as provided for under applicable local, state and federal law.

Executed the date referenced below, by the execution of this document, I acknowledge and declare, under penalty of perjury under laws of the United States and the State of California, that all of the foregoing information is true and correct. I further acknowledge that the San Diego Housing Commission will be relying upon this information in making Section 3 Business Concern designations.
