

One-on-One Financial Coaching

Managing credit and debt is a necessary skill to reach economic independence. The San Diego Housing Commission, in partnership with Springboard, a nonprofit credit counseling organization, provides one-on-one financial coaching at the Achievement Academy.

Available at no charge to Housing Choice Voucher (Section 8) recipients, the program teaches effective ways to reduce and manage credit debt and helps individuals develop a realistic household budget.

Springboard’s bilingual financial education coordinator at the Achievement Academy is Carlos Vargas. Mr. Vargas is a certified Consumer Credit Counselor by the National Foundation for Credit Counseling (NFCC) and brings the expertise and commitment necessary to assist distressed homeowners, homebuyers and consumers facing credit, debt and money management issues.

To make an appointment for confidential financial counseling at no cost to you, please contact Carlos at Carlos.Vargas@credit.org or call the Achievement Academy at (619) 578-7451.

Achievement Academy – “Top of the Class” Profile

Khang joined The Money Project program in early 2010 and rapidly became an Achievement Academy success story. Financial literacy classes and participation in a savings program that provided a 3-to-1 match allowed Khang to save $4,000 and propelled him on his way to home ownership. After a few months, Khang qualified for one of three first-time home buyer programs offered by the Housing Commission. Through the Closing Cost Assistance Grant Program, about $10,000 of his closing cost expenses were covered. When asked why he joined The Money Project, Khang replied “It was a great opportunity. I saw the flyer and decided to check out the orientation to see what it was all about.” Would he recommend the program to others? “Of course, it will give you a head start on your future!”
