Forgivable Home Repair Loans Available

The San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC) provides loans to qualified moderate-income homeowners for home improvements. Forgiveable loans from $20,000 to $30,000, which are incrementally forgiven starting at the sixth year of occupancy, are available for enhancements such as:

- Solar Energy
- Energy Efficiency
- Water Conservation
- Hazardous Materials
- Health and Safety
- Indoor Air Quality
- Tree Planting
- Waste Reduction
- Curb Appeal Enhancement
- General Property Improvement

These funds are available in the following Redevelopment Areas: City Heights, College Grove, Crossroads, Linda Vista, North Park, San Ysidro and the Southeastern part of the city of San Diego. Subject to funding availability.

Requirements
To qualify for this funding, you must:

- Be an owner-occupant with a home-loan balance below 90 percent of the value of the home;
- Have a credit score of 640 or higher;
- Not have previously received a loan through this program; and
- Qualify based on household size and maximum income limit of 100 percent of San Diego’s Area Median Income as shown in the chart below:
