PORT-OUT PROCESS GUIDELINES

Step 1: Complete and Submit Port-out Request Form

- a. Complete and submit the port-out request form
- b. Your caseworker will send you a voucher to sign and return. You must also submit a copy of your move-out notice, giving a minimum of 30-days' notice when returning the signed voucher
- c. Be prepared to pay the full rent amount for the new unit pending the processing of your file at the receiving public housing authority (RPHA)

Step 2: Port-out Process Overview

- a. When you return the move-out notice and signed voucher, your file will be reviewed within five (5) business days and your documents will be faxed to the RPHA
- b. If your port-out request is approved by the RPHA, the RPHA may recertify your eligibility during the portability process. You must provide all the required verifications, even if your recertification was recently completed.
Note: Please contact the RPHA regarding any case-related inquiries and information regarding processes and timelines.
- c. Once your case is transferred to the RPHA, their policies and procedures apply, specifically including but not limited to, the voucher size and payment standard
- d. A new contract cannot go into effect with your new Housing Agency until the commitment to the prior owner has been met.
- e. Payments will be made from the established effective date as determined by both housing agencies.
- f. Some RPHAs can take up to 60 days to accept/process your paperwork.
