SUBJECT: Local Efforts to Create and Preserve Affordable Housing in the City of San Diego

COUNCIL DISTRICT: Citywide

NO ACTION IS REQUIRED ON THE PART OF CITY COUNCIL

SUMMARY

The significant need for affordable housing in the City of San Diego requires multiple solutions. The San Diego Housing Commission (Housing Commission) advances these solutions with limited financial resources, including the creation of new housing units and the preservation or extension of affordability of existing housing units.

Since 2008, the Housing Commission has partnered with developers to create, preserve or extend the affordability of more than 7,600 affordable rental housing units. Affordability has been extended for more than 3,500 units through acquisition and rehabilitation, and more than 4,100 new affordable rental housing units have been built.

The Housing Commission will present an overview to the San Diego City Council on the status of local efforts to create and preserve affordable housing in the City of San Diego, including:

- Current local housing need
- Resources used in the creation of affordable housing
- Housing Commission efforts to preserve affordable housing
