REQUESTED ACTION:

Approve the proposed San Diego Housing Commission Administrative Regulation regarding Retention of Real Estate Brokers and Operating Procedures for Brokers.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF KEY FACTORS:

- San Diego Housing Commission (Housing Commission) Policy PO-RED-374.02, “Policy for Acquisition and or Purchase of Real Estate,” authorizes the Housing Commission to contract or cooperate with brokers for property acquisitions and to create Administrative Regulations to implement the policy.
- On November 12, 2021, the Housing Commission Board of Commissioners (Board) approved a partial-year contract with Marcus & Millichap to provide on-call real estate broker services to the Housing Commission, as described in Report No. HCR21-106.
- The Housing Commission Board also directed Housing Commission staff to return to the Housing Commission Board with an action that makes the practices set forth within the Marcus & Millichap agreement a requirement for all future Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions.
- After the Housing Commission Board’s approval and direction to staff, City Council President Sean Elo-Rivera requested that the new requirements for future Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions be presented to the Housing Authority for consideration.
- The requirements for brokers for Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions are detailed in the proposed Administrative Regulation, provided as Attachment 1 to the staff report.
- These actions do not have any fiscal impact.
- Housing Commission staff recommend that the Housing Commission Board:
  - Approve the Administrative Regulation.
  - Authorize the President & CEO, or designee, to execute all documents and instruments that are necessary and/or appropriate to implement these approvals, in a form and format approved by General Counsel, and to take such actions necessary and/or appropriate to implement these approvals.
  - Approve a resolution to forward the proposed Administrative Regulation regarding Retention of Real Estate Brokers and Operating Procedures for Brokers to the Housing Authority for consideration pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code 98.0301(e)(2)(A).

REQUESTED ACTION

Approve the proposed San Diego Housing Commission Administrative Regulation regarding Retention of Real Estate Brokers and Operating Procedures for Brokers.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

That the San Diego Housing Commission (Housing Commission) recommend that the Housing Authority of the City of San Diego (Housing Authority) take the following actions:

- 1) Approve the proposed Housing Commission Administrative Regulation regarding Retention of Real Estate Brokers and Operating Procedures for Brokers (Attachment 1);
- 2) Authorize the Housing Commission's President & Chief Executive Officer (President & CEO), or designee, to execute all documents and instruments that are necessary and/or appropriate to implement these approvals, in a form and format approved by General Counsel, and to take such actions necessary and/or appropriate to implement these approvals; and
- 3) Approve a resolution (Attachment 3) to forward the proposed Administrative Regulation regarding Retention of Real Estate Brokers and Operating Procedures for Brokers to the Housing Authority for consideration pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code 98.0301(e)(2)(A).

SUMMARY

Housing Commission Policy PO-RED-374.02 (Attachment 2), "Policy for Acquisition and or Purchase of Real Estate," authorizes the Housing Commission to contract or cooperate with brokers for property acquisitions and to create Administrative Regulations to implement the policy. The Housing Authority approved the policy on March 24, 2009 (Report No. HAR09-016; Resolution No. HA-1410). The Housing Authority approved revisions to the policy, including renumbering it as PO-RED-374.02 on November 15, 2016 (Report No. HAR16-029; Resolution No. HA-1705) to comply with current federal, state, local laws and/or current Housing Commission practice and as a result of the amendment to San Diego Municipal Code section 98.0301, which the City Council approved October 18, 2016 (Agenda Item No. 330) and November 15, 2016 (Agenda Item No. 63; Ordinance No. O-20746).

On November 12, 2021, the Housing Commission Board of Commissioners (Board) approved a partial-year contract with Marcus & Millichap to provide on-call real estate broker services to the Housing

Commission, as described in Report No. HCR21-106. On a motion by Commissioner Eugene “Mitch” Mitchell, seconded by Vice Chair Ryan Clumpner and passed 4-0, the Housing Commission Board also directed Housing Commission staff to return to the Housing Commission Board with an action that makes the practices set forth within the Marcus & Millichap agreement a requirement for all future Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions. The Housing Commission Board’s November 12, 2021, action occurred pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code section 98.0301(e)(4)(A)(ii), pursuant to which the Housing Commission provided Housing Authority members seven-day advance notice of the Housing Commission’s hearing of the matter. After the Housing Commission Board’s approval and direction to staff, City Council President Sean Elo-Rivera requested that the new requirements for future Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions be presented to the Housing Authority for consideration.

The requirements for brokers for Housing Commission real estate acquisition transactions are detailed in the proposed Administrative Regulation (Attachment 1) and include the following but are not limited to:

Conflicts of Interest:

- Compliance with all applicable conflict laws. Brokers and agents shall comply with any and all local, state, and federal conflict of interest laws, rules and regulations, as they shall hereafter be amended from time to time.
- Statement of Economic Interest Disclosure Form (Form 700). Any real estate brokers or agents representing the Housing Commission which are defined by the FPPA as “consultants” of the Housing Commission shall be required to file a Form 700 disclosure form at all times required by the state and local law, and in addition, prior to the execution of any contract the “consultant” shall provide an executed paper Form 700 for Housing Commission review to ensure that at the date of execution of the contract that no known conflicts of interest exist.
- Updated Conflict Attestations. Prior to Housing Commission entering into any Letters of Intent, Purchase and Sale Agreements or other instrument with the intent to acquire real estate, and prior to closing escrow to purchase real estate, brokers and agents shall update prior written disclosures in writing and deliver the same to Housing Commission so that Housing Commission may verify that the broker/agent has no conflicts of interest that would preclude the Housing Commission from working with the broker/agent and purchasing the real estate.
- Dual Agency. In the event the broker/agent represents the owner or owners of property which the broker/agent believes may be suitable for the Housing Commission’s consideration, the broker/agent shall provide the Housing Commission with a written disclosure notice stating the address of the property, the owner of the property and the names of all persons employed or otherwise working for the broker/agent with respect to the property, and any and all prior business or personal relationships between the broker/agent and the sellers.
- Abstention in the Event of Conflict. The Housing Commission will determine in its sole discretion whether the broker/agent’s representation with respect to the acquisition of a property or interest in the property or seller is prohibited or likely prohibited by federal, state or local law, rule or regulation. If the Housing Commission determines that such dual representation or other financial, business or other interest ARE NOT PROHIBITED by any federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation, then the broker/agent shall represent the Housing Commission with respect to the potential acquisition of such a property. However, if either the Housing Commission determines that such dual representation or other interest

ARE prohibited by any federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation or broker/agent represents any seller with respect to a property, then broker/agent shall not represent the Housing Commission with respect to the potential acquisition and the broker/agent consents to the Housing Commission's acquisition of such property utilizing another broker/agent, or without a broker and the broker/agent waives the right to receive a commission or other compensation of any kind whatsoever with respect to the Housing Commission's acquisition of such property. Nothing herein shall prohibit or otherwise limit the broker/agent's right to compensation from the seller of the property which compensation shall be disclosed to the Housing Commission in writing prior to the execution of the purchase and sale agreement. The Housing Commission's determination under this section must be in writing and signed by the designated officer of the Housing Commission.

- Confidential Information. The broker/agent shall not disclose the confidential information of the Housing Commission to anyone.

Qualifications. The broker/agent shall, at all times during the rendition of services, be a real estate agent licensed by the State of California's Department of Real Estate and shall exercise the standard of care used by brokers within the City of San Diego.

Retained Brokers. The relationship between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will be a non-exclusive representation. Housing Commission may retain several brokers and will refer properties to a retained broker on a rotating basis, or based on experience of the broker as determined by the Housing Commission in its sole discretion. The Housing Commission will track properties referred by retained brokers to properly determine the appropriate broker/agent that is entitled to compensation for the acquisition of a property.

Processes based on Property Status. The agreement between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will include specified processes each for Listed Properties, Unlisted Properties and Off-Market Properties.

Compensation. The agreement between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will include different compensation structures as agreed upon by the parties for Listed Properties, Unlisted Properties, and Off-Market Properties. In situations where the broker/agent obtains fees from a seller or co-operating brokers, the broker/agent will disclose all fees obtained and to be obtained prior to the execution of the purchase and sale agreement for each transaction.

Approval. The Housing Commission will seek appropriate approvals from the President and CEO, San Diego Housing Commission Board, or the Housing Authority for the City of San Diego as required by the Procurement Policy and San Diego Municipal Code Section 98.0301 prior to the payment of any funds under the agreement.

FISCAL CONSIDERATIONS

These actions do not have any fiscal impact.

San Diego Housing Commission ADMINISTRATIVE          REGULATION
Subject: RETENTION OF REAL ESTATE BROKERS; OPERATING PROCEDURES FOR BROKERS
Number: AR	Effective Date: January __, 2022	Page 1 of 8

1. Purpose. The Housing Authority of the City of San Diego [“Housing Authority”] previously approved Policy for Acquisition and or Purchase of Real Estate, Policy PO-RED-374.02 [the “Acquisition Policy”], effective December 15, 2016, which allows for the adoption of Administrative Regulations to implement that policy. It is the intent of this Administrative Regulation for the Retention of Real Estate Brokers; Operating Procedures for Brokers [“Real Estate Broker Administrative Regulation”] to provide a methodology for procuring the services of real estate brokers, and to provide operating procedures to be utilized by retained brokers to ensure that all applicable conflict of interest rules and regulations are complied with in a timely and complete manner.
2. Scope. The scope of this Real Estate Broker Administrative Regulation is to provide for an approved method of procurement of real estate brokers for the acquisition of real estate by the San Diego Housing Commission [“Housing Commission”], in accordance with the terms and conditions of its Statement of Procurement Policy, Policy PO-PUR-373.01 [“Procurement Policy”]. This Real Estate Broker Administrative Regulation is adopted to provide operating procedures to ensure the Fair Political Practices Act [FPPA] rules and regulations are timely satisfied, and to further require certain financial disclosures by Real Estate Brokers to the Housing Commission at set times throughout the term of the agreement. These disclosures are necessary to ensure that no prohibited conflicts of interest under any and all applicable local, state, and federal laws and/or regulations will occur as the result of the acquisition by the Housing Commission, or, if such interests are shown to exist, that the Housing Commission shall be allowed to proceed to acquire the real estate without the aid and assistance of the conflicted broker/agent without the Housing Commission being required to pay any real estate commission or without payment of any compensation to said broker/agent.
3. Definitions. Terms utilized within this Real Estate Broker Administrative Regulation are either defined the first time that the term is utilized or there is a cross reference to other sources that provide those definitions. In addition, terms that are defined in the Acquisition Policy, as amended from time to time, shall have the same meaning in this Real Estate Broker Administrative Regulation.
4. Approved Real Estate Broker Retention Procedures. Processes for procurement of real estate brokers are generally set forth within the Procurement Policy, as amended from time to time. These methods include, but are not limited to, Requests for Qualifications, Requests for Proposals, Sealed Bids, and Non-Competitive Procurements, to the extent permissible under applicable law. In addition, as set forth within the Acquisition Policy, the Housing Commission may also deal directly with real estate brokers who present listed properties to the Housing Commission and to cooperate with brokers, as set forth within

5. Required Contractual Provisions: Any contract between the Housing Commission and a retained real estate broker shall include terms and conditions that accomplish the following:
- A. Conflicts of Interest
- i. Compliance with all applicable conflict laws. Brokers and agents shall comply with any and all local, state, and federal conflict of interest laws, rules and regulations, as they shall hereafter be amended from time to time.
  - ii. Statement of Economic Interest Disclosure Form (Form 700). Any real estate brokers or agents representing the Housing Commission which are defined by the FPPA as “consultants” of the Housing Commission shall be required to file a Form 700 disclosure form at all times required by the state and local law, and in addition, prior to the execution of any contract the “consultant” shall provide an executed paper Form 700 for Housing Commission review to ensure that at the date of execution of the contract that no known conflicts of interest exist.
  - iii. Updated Conflict Attestations. Prior to Housing Commission entering into any Letters of Intent, Purchase and Sale Agreements, and prior to closing escrow to purchase real estate, brokers and agents shall update prior written disclosures in writing and deliver the same to Housing Commission so that Housing Commission may verify that the broker/agent has no conflicts of interest that would preclude the Housing Commission from working with the broker/agent and purchasing the real estate.
  - iv. Dual Agency. In the event the broker/agent represents the owner or owners of property which the broker/agent believes may be suitable for the Housing Commission’s consideration, the broker/agent shall provide the Housing Commission with a written disclosure notice stating the address of the property, the owner of the property and the names of all persons employed or otherwise working for the broker/agent with respect to the property, and any and all prior business or personal relationships between the broker/agent and the sellers.
  - v. Abstention in the Event of Conflict. The Housing Commission will determine in its sole discretion whether the broker/agent’s representation with respect to the acquisition of a property or interest in the property or seller is prohibited or likely prohibited by federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation. If the Housing Commission determines that such dual representation or other financial, business, or other interest ARE NOT PROHIBITED by any federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation, then the broker/agent shall represent the Housing Commission with respect to the potential acquisition of such a property. However, if either the Housing Commission determines that such dual representation or other interest ARE prohibited by any federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation or broker/agent represents any seller with respect to a property, then broker/agent shall not represent the Housing Commission with respect to the potential acquisition and the broker/agent consents to the Housing Commission's acquisition of such property utilizing another broker/agent, or without a broker and the broker/agent waives the right to receive a commission or other compensation of any kind whatsoever with respect to the Housing Commission's acquisition of such property. Nothing herein shall prohibit or otherwise limit the broker/agent's right to compensation from the seller of the property which compensation shall be disclosed to the Housing Commission in writing prior to the execution of the purchase and sale agreement. The Housing Commission's determination under this section must be in writing and signed by the designated officer of the Housing Commission.

vi. Confidential Information. The broker/agent shall not disclose the confidential information of the Housing Commission to anyone.

B. Termination

- i. For Convenience. The Housing Commission may terminate the agreement for convenience with thirty (30) days' notice to the broker/agent.
- ii. For Cause. The broker/agent's failure to timely and satisfactorily perform any obligations under the agreement shall constitute a default. Should the broker/agent fail to cure the default within a reasonable time, the Housing Commission may terminate the right to proceed under the agreement and procure equivalent services. Broker/agent shall be liable to Housing Commission for any extra costs incurred by the Housing Commission due to the default.
- iii. For Lack of Funding. The agreement may be terminated immediately by Housing Commission upon cessation of funding of the state, local or federal program that funds this agreement.

- C. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. If any legal action or arbitration is brought for the enforcement of the action, the successful party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred, in that action, in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled.
- D. Disputes. All disputes arising under this agreement shall be resolved by litigation in San Diego Superior Court, Downtown Branch after first attempting resolution of the dispute through non-binding mediation.
- E. Qualifications. The broker/agent shall, at all times during the rendition of services, be a real estate agent licensed by the State of California's Department of Real Estate and shall exercise the standard of care used by brokers within the City of San Diego.
- F. Retained Brokers. The relationship between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will be a non-exclusive representation. Housing Commission may retain several brokers and will refer properties to a retained broker on a rotating basis or based on experience of the broker as determined by the Housing Commission in its sole discretion. The Housing Commission will track properties referred by retained brokers to properly determine the appropriate broker/agent that is entitled to compensation for the acquisition of a property.
- G. Processes based on Property Status. The agreement between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will include specified processes each for Listed Properties, Unlisted Properties and Off-Market Properties.
- H. Compensation. The agreement between the broker/agent and the Housing Commission will include different compensation structures as agreed upon by the parties for Listed Properties, Unlisted Properties, and Off-Market Properties. In situations where the broker/agent obtains fees from a seller or co-operating brokers, the broker/agent will disclose all fees obtained and to be obtained prior to the execution of the purchase and sale agreement for each transaction.
- I. Approval. The Housing Commission will seek appropriate approvals from the President and CEO, San Diego Housing Commission Board, or the Housing Authority for the City of San Diego as required by the Procurement Policy and San Diego Municipal Code Section 98.0301 prior to the payment of any funds under the agreement.

The above terms are in addition to any and all other terms suggested by the Housing Commission's general counsel.
