C Street Inn

The San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC) continues to help C Street Inn residents identify and relocate to alternative permanent rental housing as quickly as possible in support of the City Attorney’s Office’s efforts regarding this property at 636 C Street.

As of December 5, 2022:

- 71 of 86 residents moved to permanent housing (34 were connected to rental assistance programs based on their needs).
  - 33 received motel assistance before moving to permanent housing.
  - 38 moved directly to permanent housing.
- 3 residents are still residing in hotels.
  - 2 of 3 are moving into permanent housing the week of December 5.
- 9 residents moved to unknown locations.
- 2 residents passed away.
- 1 entered shelter.

SDHC engaged in extensive outreach to connect with residents, including multiple events on the sidewalk outside of the property.

SDHC staff will continue to be available to support those residents who have not yet secured permanent housing by providing housing location assistance until December 31, 2022. Starting on January 1, 2023, any residents who did not secure permanent housing can access Homelessness Prevention/Diversion and other services through SDHC’s HOUSING FIRST – SAN DIEGO hotline or access services through the City’s homeless crisis response system access points.
